CESA Languages Abroad

Athens 2012

Athens offers the perfect setting for language students who wish to explore the urban heart of Greece whilst improving their Greek language skills. Athens, home to 4.5 million inhabitants is the capital of Greece, set on the mainland between three mountains and it is a city of fabulous contrasts. Modern Athens is divided into districts but Plateia Síndagmatos (Syntagma or Constitution Square) is the epicentre of the city - almost everything worth seeing in Athens is within half an hour's walk of here – and the college is just 10 minutes walk from the square. Famed for the magnificence of its ancient monuments, its many bars and restaurants, world-renowned museums in its central districts, Athens appeals to everyone!

The school is housed in a modern building situated in the heart of the city close to the famous national archaeological museum. The school has good facilities: air-conditioned classrooms, fully equipped with audio-visual aids as well as computer laboratories with Internet access, a library and a cafeteria. The school's great location gives students the opportunity to experience city life with easy access to all means of transport. There are 5 classrooms, a small library, a café and internet access. The courses run throughout the year at all levels from beginners to advanced. Classes focus on the four main language skills of speaking, listening, reading and writing, combined with aspects of local culture. This course is recommended for those who wish to learn the language at a steady pace and attracts students of all ages and backgrounds.

Mrs Lambert : Private Tuition

"I wanted to learn some conversational Greek, and CESA recommended a low intensity private tuition course. I studied for two weeks in Athens and learnt key phrases, core vocabulary and some basic tense work. I was gently guided by my tutor and felt encouraged to keep speaking Greek even after the course! Thank you – for me, it was perfect!"

Christina: Standard Course

"I love learning languages and always wanted to have a go at Greek. I adored exploring Athens. I really enjoyed studying the language. I also had a great time meeting like-minded students."
