CESA Languages Abroad

Cusco

2012

A new CESA language school, catering for ALL linguistic needs from beginner through to the advanced learner, the sister school to the college in Lima. Cusco, with an elevation of 3,416 meters (11,207 Feet), is located in the heart of the Andean Peruvian Land. White-washed alleys and terracotta-tiled roofs are home to a rich mix of history, lively nightlife and a vast array of museums, sights and scenery. As capital of the Inca Empire it has plenty to offer the visitor. The Plaza de Armas is at the city centre, there you will find La Catedral and the San Francisco Church. You can also visit the Temple of the Sun Coricancha and the White Christ, a statue of Jesus standing above the city. The main local attraction is, of course, Machu Pichu.

The college is centrally located, near the Plaza de Armas, within easy reach of the monuments, restaurants, bars, shops & markets. A small college catering for 40/50 students, including 8+ classrooms, a cafeteria, 2 computers (free internet & WIFI for students). Activities include a city tour, cookery & dance classes, a conversation club, excursions to Valle Sagrado, Sacsayhuaman, Pisac, & Machu Pichu. (one excursion offered most Saturdays). The college suits all language learners, and the small class size encourages rapid language acquisition. The Cusco college offers personal attention and the opportunity to explore the wonders of Peru's fabulous Inca/Spanish heritage.

Barbara: Standard Course

“Both the student house and the school were in a great area and very close to the Plaza de Armas. The staff in Cusco was so friendly and helpful. Everyday there was something fun planned, from horseback, riding in the nearby ruins, to shopping at the local markets. At night I felt comfortable going out with the group, and the places we went to were very nice. One night there was even a live band that I loved. I also went to Machu Picchu, and even though I didn't go with the school, they were so very helpful in planning my trip. I highly recommend doing the entire Inca Trail as there are many impressive ruins along the way, but ending at Machu Picchu was the best. My only regret is that I wish I could've had more time there.”

Andrea: Standard Course

“Peru was very exciting. Besides good food, Peru offers beautiful scenery and an interesting culture. The Inca temple and other works in Cusco and its surroundings, like Machu Picchu or the Sacred Valley, are impressive. I recommend everyone travels to Peru.”

CESA Plus Points:

Cusco:

Spanish colonial architecture stands astride monolithic ruined Inca palaces ~ the “must do” is the Inca Trail to Maccu Pichu, ~ Plaza de Armas, is at the heart of the city, with the majority of sights within walking distance (the Inca Sun Temple, the Plaza San Francisco, the central market and the Iglesia de Santa Clara to name a few) ~ try and visit the Museo de Arte Precolombino, the stunning Inca-walled street of Calle Triunfo & the artisan quarter of San Blas ~ discover the Inca fortress of Sacsayhuaman ~ Cusco is a lively city for nightlife, with bars & restaurants galore ~ the friendly nature of the people (despite the Inca trail tourists) is a real plus point for language students!

Cusco College:

Wonderful central location in the historic heart of Cusco ~ ideal for adults & Gappers year round ~ small group courses ~ special Summer Spanish & Culture programme ~ High quality tuition and great student care ~ Excellent hosts ~ fabulous trips and excursions offered.
