Julia: Languages for Life

“Spending 4 months in Milan was incredible. The college staff were great. My teachers really challenged me. The other students were always happy to go out. Between the classes and my social life there was no time to get bored! I was so pleased when I passed my DILI exam, and could prove my new found Italian proficiency on my CV!”

Stephanie: Languages for Life

“Milan - amazing! I've always wanted to go there and my Gap Year was the perfect opportunity! It was my first trip abroad on my own and it was daunting to even think about it, just before I went. So mostly I tried not to. The college was brilliant, in a good location in Navigli, surrounded by bars and cafes. The staff and teachers were all friendly and welcoming. Daily life in Milan took a bit of adjustment, but seeing familiar, smiling faces around the college made life easier. By the end of the second week, I felt totally at home and was having a great time.”
