Nerja 2012

Mr Matthews: Private Tuition

“Quality tuition, good teachers, great room in the residence. Ideal for my needs.”

Mr Stephens: Over 50's Course

“Honestly, the two weeks just flew by –the afternoon activities were, without exception, extremely interesting: whether a flamenco seminar, a visit to Nerja’s impressive caves, wine-tasting (by Paco, who turned out to be a real expert in the matter), and a fun cooking class. I loved Nerja, the college, the course and my fortnight studying Spanish. Can’t wait to come back! Thanks.”

Christina : Standard Course

“I was 16 years old, and going away alone without my twin sister for the first time. My first thought when I reached Nerja was ‘Oh no, it’s so hot, and so Spanish, and all I can say is ‘gracias’... how am I going to survive?!”

However, everything always looks better in the light of day, so “don’t panic”. My mainstay during my 2 weeks was my host family, and especially my Spanish ‘mum’ Isobel. The family were utterly brilliant, and I would say to anyone going on a CESA course, do stay with a host family, and talk to them, do things with them – you’ll get so much more out of your experience, and gain an understanding of the local culture as well.”
