If you would rather follow a course at a different time of the year or want a different style of course you are very welcome to join students on any of the other General Language courses offered. Older students are very welcome to join a wide range of CESA courses, and frequently do so. If you have any questions about the suitability of an Over 50 Course or any of the language courses we offer, please contact CESA, we will be delighted to help.

"All the teachers were splendid and lessons were great fun. The emphasis was an oral work - just what I wanted. There was enough grammar to take me forward in my learning. The school was clean, neat and well organised. The building and rooms were super. The position of the school in Malaga is reassuringly safe."

 Over 50s Course
 Malaga

Malaga

The school was established in 1971 and is located in a purpose built residence only 10 minutes walk downhill, to the main beach front area, with an amazing array of bars and restaurants to suit all pockets and appetites. It is also only 20 minutes by bus to the centre of Malaga city. Students love the local area, located up in the hills, amongst pleasant, low level villas with good local amenities and an easy stroll down to the beach.

The college facilities include 20 classrooms, most with a TV & video, a small cinema, private study area and a multi media centre with computer learning facilities. In addition the college has beautiful sun terraces, a restaurant and bar, a dance studio, a small pool and laundrette. The college residence is on site, which ensures that the social focal point for students is the sun terraces in all but the poorest of weathers! The college teachers are all native speakers of Spanish, with University degrees or comparable experience, who specialise in teaching Spanish as a second language.

Additional Option: Over 50s plus Creative Arts Workshop

Same start dates as Barcelona Over 50s Course

Tuition: € 640.00 + CESA Fee : €40.00 + Host accommodation (quoted above)

4 workshops are scheduled to take place over the two weeks of your course, with two workshops per week, each lasting between 1 and 1.5 hours. All materials are provided and you are welcome to take home any work you produce.

~ Painting Ceramics workshop

This workshop consists of decorating a porcelain dragon figure (designed by Gaudi) which has previously been fired at 1200° C. The decorative mosaic technique often used by Gaudi is also explained in detail.

~ Glass-fusing workshop

Students will study the many marvellous possibilities of working with molten glass. Each participant will produce a plate or bowl and decorate it according to their own preferences.

~ Pottery workshop

Following a demonstration of the art of 'throwing' a pot on a wheel, each participant will be given the opportunity to produce a bowl, plate or jug of their own.

~ Sculpture workshop

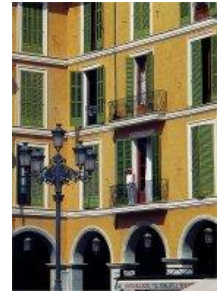

This workshop focuses on how to make sculptures appear well balanced and less static than is often the case. Each participant will be then be given the opportunity to make a Picasso-style Spanish bull.

Palma de Mallorca

Set in a beautiful natural bay, Palma has been the capital of Mallorca for over 1000 years. Modern Palma is a bustling city with a population of just over 300,000. The city has an extraordinarily beautiful Gothic Quarter and many fine monuments and squares. The principle attraction is the golden toned cathedral, which was built over a 300-year period and still dominates the skyline overlooking the harbour.

The school occupies a large, elegant building in the very centre of the old city, on the Plaza de Cort, near the city hall. The school occupies all 4 floors of the building and has 20 air-conditioned classrooms, as well as a number of offices and a recreational area with several computers, which students are able to use either before or after class.

College residence, single rm, self-catering: € 350.00 En suite: € 414.00

Aimed at those older students who wish to study with their peers whilst concentrating on developing their communication skills. The course focuses on the social and cultural aspects of the Spanish language rather than grammar analysis and written skills. It also includes four cultural activities per week; visits to museums and monuments, a show, an evening meal with a teacher and a Saturday excursion.

Classes are in small groups with the emphasis on oral expression, as well as social and cultural aspects rather than grammar analysis and written skills. The teachers who impart this course are conscious of the specific needs of the students as well as their different rhythm of learning and the importance of special emphasis on culture (festivals and traditions, history and literature and the Spanish life style).

Spanish for the Over 40s:

2 weeks course duration

Open to 40 yrs + age group

20 group language lessons per week plus 4 optional cultural lessons per week

Max. 8 people per class
