St Petersburg 2012

St Petersburg as a city is monumental, eclectic, mesmerising and magnificent. Founded by Peter the Great, home to the Hermitage, the setting for Dostoyevsky's "Crime and Punishment" and a dynamic hub of 21st century Russia.

The college is located just off Nevsky Prospekt, between the Russian museum, the Mikailovsky Zamok, the circus and two nice parks. The nearest metro station is only 5 mins away. Facilities include 13 classrooms, free wi-fi access, a self-study/library room and small refectory.

With over 16 years of teaching experience, and between 25/ 100 students studying each month the St Petersburg college offers a fabulous language learning environment for ALL linguistic needs from beginner through to the advanced learner.

Russian language courses on offer include general language courses (across 6 to 8 language levels), combined & private tuition programmes. The college suits Gap Year and graduate students requiring longer term courses and adults looking to improve their Russian for career, academic or personal reasons.

Mr Markham: Private tuition

"My language skills improved across the board, even my confusion over complicated verbs of motion disappeared over a fortnight!"

Kathryn: Gap Year student

"I found the college staff really friendly and learning was the best bit! The college was central, so after school you could go pretty much anywhere -- a museum or a bar, depending on how the lessons had gone!"
